* The programmes' design enables participants to take part in all offered courses. There won't be any course conflicts between weekly and compact courses at the participating universities EvH and hsg.

BUT: The additional language courses at the Ruhr University Bochum (RUB) might cause conflicts on some Tuesdays and (on higher levels) eventually on Wednesday in the late afternoon.

 The additional language courses will take place in the late afternoon on Monday, Tuesday or (maybe) Wednesday – depending on the level. The definitive course offer will be announced in March 2018.
